

While-viewing

First impressions

When arriving in Berlin Maya walks to the Ryam Hotel. On the way she does a little sightseeing. Maya should know what these sights are called in case she needs to give advice to any hotel guests later.

Can you help her?

a) Match the names of the sights in the box with the photos.

East Side Gallery – Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church – TV Tower and World Clock – Berlin Central Station

b) What do you know about these sights? Do some Internet research if necessary. Write 3–4 sentences or keywords about the sights to inform a foreigner like Maya about them. Add them to the photos like in a mini guide book and hang them up in your classroom.
