

15 Practise adjectives (→ p. 96/ex. 2)

popular

nervous

boring

lucky

careful

strange

- All the pupils like Kate and Mike. They're _____.
- Mark always plays the same computer games. He's so _____.
- Ian looks five times before he goes over the street. He's very _____.
- Kim is holding my hand because she feels very _____.
- I'm sure I left my bag here but it's not here. That's _____.
- Tim wins every game he plays. He's good, but he's also _____.

16 SKILLS: Adjectives with two forms (→ p. 96/ex. 1)

Write the German meaning under the adjectives and fill in the right form in the sentences.

bored _____	boring _____	This book is so boring _____. I won't read it. I'm really bored _____.
excited _____	exciting _____	This is a very _____ film. I must see it. Let's go to the cinema. I'm really _____. interested _____	interesting _____	Are you _____ in ice-hockey? – Oh yes. The London Knights' last match was very _____.
surprised _____	surprising _____	What a _____ present! I'm really _____ that you remembered my birthday.
worried _____	worrying _____	Listen to the weather forecast. It's really _____. – Oh, you needn't be _____. It's not for our town.